

TOO MANY DEMONS

This subject gets our attention. How do we understand the reality of the invisible? What might Jesus want us to know? Welcome to a scary story that takes away fear.

“Let us go over to the other side of the lake.” (Luke 8:22)

Luke 8:26-39

The Characters of the Story:

Demonic Dan - tormented

Son of the Most High - confident

Townsppeople - “go away”

The Theme of the Story:

Many - demons

Invisible - conflict

Rescued - saved

The Goal of the Story:

Who has the power?

Why was he saved?

What happens next?

Mark 5:20 → Mark 7:31

It only takes one!

Reflective Questions:

- 1)What do you think of when you hear the topic of demons? Why do half of the people in our society not believe in demons?
- 2)Why is this a scary story that takes away fear?
- 3)What does this story teach you? How might you apply it to your life?
